ITEMS TO BRING FOR ADMISSION INTO JACO PROGRAM

Administrative Fee: ALL clients must bring a $100.00 administrative fee in order to be admitted into JACO. This fee covers client supplies such as Big Books, Big Book Dictionaries, Journals, Pens, Notebooks, Folders, Highlighters, Sobriety Coins, Art Supplies, Games, and Equipment for Recreation.

Insurance: If a client has private insurance, the card must be provided at admission. This will affect admission to the program.

Legal: If the client is on probation, they must provide the name of the Probation Officer and contact phone number. P.O. fax number, e-mail address along with the physical address is preferred. If court-referred, they will need the county, judge's name, and contact number for the court. If there is an attorney involved, please provide the attorney's name, phone number, and address.

Medication: If the client is taking medication, they must bring enough medication to last them for the entire time they are in treatment, at least a 30-day supply. Failure to do so may affect admission into our program.

Identification: When clients arrive for admission, they must bring valid identification. Accepted forms of identification include: driver's license, social security card, picture ID, birth certificate, etc. Failure to provide proper identification may result in the individual not proceeding with admission.

Mail: Clients may receive mail while in our program. All mail will be opened in the presence of client's counselor. Please address mail to the following:

JACO
